Wholehearted Commitment and Credentials

I am grateful to be given this opportunity to ask for your vote and support and that of your family and friends during the upcoming 2004 general election. During my tenure in the State Senate, I have been recognized by colleagues and constituents for truly listening and securing the resources to build our economy, create more good paying jobs, revitalize our communities, educate our youth, improve our health care delivery systems, and access necessary quality of life services for senior citizens and those who cannot help themselves.

Snapshot: Family and Credentials

- Family: Lori-wife (BA and MA from NMHU in Business Administration) and Peter-son
- School Superintendent (Las Vegas City Schools)
- Past Associate Superintendent for Support Services (10 years-Las Vegas City Schools)
- State Senator (14 years-10th in seniority-current member: Senate Finance Committee and Capital Outlay Sub-Committee)
- Formal Education: UNM-EdD (Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership), NMHU-MA (Counseling), and UNM-BA (Double Major: Economics and Philosophy)
- Past Mayor (City of Santa Rosa)
- Past President of numerous civic organizations such as the Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce
- Past Family Restaurant Partnership with my Parents-Albert and Ida Jo Campos

Overall, I will continue to do my best to be a positive role model, especially for our youth.

Thank you for consideration of my candidacy and credentials to continue as your State Senator.

Siempre,
Pete Campos
